PLEASE READ CAREFULLY! The Florida Bar suggests this information.

1. We do not start work without a signed fee agreement. If you consult with the attorney and if you agree to hire the attorney and the attorney agree to represent you, you will both sign a Fee Agreement for representation. The Fee Agreement for representation will explain the terms and conditions of representation.
2. Completing this information form is not an agreement for representation and creates no attorney/client relationship. This office does not represent you regarding any matter during the consultation, UNLESS AND UNTIL both you and the attorney sign a written Fee Agreement for representation.
3. If your legal problems involve a potential lawsuit, the attorney urges you to consult with other attorneys to protect your rights if you do not hire us or we decline to represent you. If the attorney does not agree to represent you, this includes any matter on this information sheet or discussed with the attorney, realize a law suit must be filed within a period of time called a Statute of Limitations. The attorney's decision to not represent you should not be taken as an expression of the merits of your case.
